Schneider Super Angulon lens

THIS WAS THE PICTURE IN HOPE'S FIRST BAPTIST Church at 4 p. m. Sunday when Hope High School's Class of 1960 gathered for the baccalaureate service.

OR L. T. LAWRENCE, PASTOR OF THE FIRST Presbyterian, asked the invocation; the Rev. Rufus F. Sorrells, pastor of First Methodist, read the Scripture; and the prayer was by the Rev. Gordon Ranshaw, pastor of Unity Baptist.

THE REV. CLIFTON BELL, PASTOR OF FIRST Christian, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The program opened with the singing of the graduates while Mrs. B. C. Hyatt played the "Coronation March." Hope High School Glee Club appeared in two selections. The picture was made during Superintendent James H. Jones' reading of announcements.

Court Rules for Highway Comm.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled for the Highway Commission in a dispute with another state agency today and said the commission doesn't have to pay a tax on materials bought outside the state.

The high court said the State Revenue Department could not collect a use tax levy of $999.70 involved specifically in the lawsuit.

The use tax, similar to the sales tax, applies only to purchases outside the state.

The tax is levied against "persons."

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said "persons" included state agencies, but both Pulaski Chancery Court and the Supreme Court disagreed.

Commission to Study Bridge

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission may discuss at a meeting Wednesday the possibility of the White River somewhere between Batesville and Cotter.

Research planners have listed three possible bridge sites between Sylamore and Calico Rock. The minimum cost would be $1,630,000 for a bridge and the roads to connect it with the state highway system.

13 Graduates Rank High in Special Exams

Thirteen members of the 1960 Hope High School Senior Class took college board examinations earlier this spring.

The highest possible score on any individual test is 800 and the average score is 400. The average for these 13 students on aptitude tests which included Verbal Concepts 484.75 and Mathematical Concepts 493.00. Their achievement average on English Usage was 580. A study of the results of college board testing reveals that two thirds of students taking this test score between 400 and 600 points.

"These results are above average and I feel very good. I also feel that their experience with our testing program here at Hope High School had some influence on the students' scores," said Earl Downs, Hope High School Guidance Counselor.

More and more of the larger colleges and universities are requiring that high school seniors desiring admission take a college board examination or some type of college entrance test.

Scores Left Dead in Chile Quake, Tidal Waves Following

Giant Waves Lash Hawaii, 9 Known Dead

HONOLULU (AP)—Awesome tidal waves generated by Chilean earthquakes, rolled across the Pacific today, causing nine deaths in the Hawaiian Islands.

The waves ripped away docks and set boats adrift, while smashing less violently at points along the U.S. mainland's coast.

The city of Hilo, on the big island of Hawaii, was hardest hit by the tremendous waves, surging some six feet above normal at their peak.

Damage in Hilo, city of 25,000, reportedly exceeded that in a similarly destructive tidal wave in April 1946.

Mass evacuations because of forewarnings sharply cut the losses in the Hawaiian Islands. All deaths occurred this time in Hilo. Many persons were injured and others reported trapped there.

One eyewitness said the waves hit "with the roar of a freight train."

The massive waves rolled across the Pacific from the suboceanic birthplace of the Chilean coast, where a continuing series of heavy earthquakes and tidal waves caused more than 330 deaths and tremendous damage.

Floating docks and boats were torn away at San Diego, Calif. Ferry service in San Diego Bay was disrupted. Waves there rose four to five feet above normal.

At Los Angeles, the tidal swell was followed by an extremely low tide that broke mooring lines, set some boats adrift and broke yacht pier pilings.

When the waves reached San Francisco, they raised the tidal level by only about a foot.

The waves smashed the island of Hawaii in four mighty surges with Hilo taking the brunt of it. Hilo is on the northeast coast of the island, easternmost in the Hawaiian chain.

Tells Meet to Get Rid of Race Hatred

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Dr. W. O. Vaughn Jr., new first vice president of the Southern Baptist Convention, has urged his congregation to "rid ourselves of all our racial hatred and all our prejudices" and to follow "the Biblical injunction to 'love everyone.'"

In a sermon delivered yesterday at Immanuel Baptist Church here, Vaughn said: "The problem in Southern cities is not whether your children will sit in school by a Negro or at a lunch counter by a Negro. The problem is whether there will be a school for that child to sit in at all."

The Little Rock minister was elected last Wednesday to the Southern Baptist Convention post at Miami Beach, Fla.

Red Plane Violates Dane Border

ROEDBY, Denmark (AP)—A MIG-17 jet fighter violated the Danish border today, passing over a home guard shooting range in south Denmark less than 1,000 yards above the ground.

A home guard officer disclosed at the same time that another MIG-17 fighter was observed over that general area at about the same time an American C-47 Air Force plane passed over on route from Copenhagen to Hamburg last Friday before making an emergency landing in Communist East Germany, some 50 miles across the Baltic.

He said he was unable to tell whether the planes were Soviet or Polish. Poland is just a few minutes jet flying distance from the Danish island of Lolland, where the planes were observed.

350 Persons in Nine Provinces, Dead or Missing

By THOMAS J. STONE

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Two days of shattering earthquakes followed by giant tidal waves have left at least 350 persons dead or missing in south and central Chile and leveled buildings in nine provinces.

Aid was rushed from the Latin American neighbors and U.S. bases in Panama.

A 24-foot high tidal wave surged over a small village near the south Chilean port of Ancud Sunday night. The Interior Ministry announced at least 130 persons were missing and presumed drowned.

Another series of quakes jolted the battered area for the second straight day, boosting the death count from tremors alone to 220. Officials reported another 1,500 injured. Casualty figures were expected to mount as wrecked communications were restored.

The quake was Chile's worst since 1939 when more than 20,000 persons perished in the same area.

Official reports said the tidal wave near Ancud washed away 100 villages and sank a boat carrying 30 passengers. None of the

DOROTHY DIX Son Needs Less Belting and More Loving Care

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I read your column to try and understand the problems of teenagers. I have two sons, 18 and 16 years of age; one a senior, the other a sophomore, also a girl of 14. We are an average family; pay our bills, own two cars, and our furniture; are buying our home. My husband has worked at the same factory since he was 19. I spend one night a week bowling on a league and try to bowl once a week with my husband.

The boys grew up with church a must, they were Boy Scouts, Haynes. Fred Clifford of Dallas, Tex., has been a recent visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Don LaFolais.

Mrs. Reno Bonomo arrived Friday from Ft. Knox, Kentucky to visit Mrs. Thelma Moore and Mrs. J. E. Schooley. She will be joined by her husband, Captain Bonomo, on June 1st. After a trip to Texas and New Mexico they will sail from New York for Germany where he will be stationed.

Miss Rowena Rowe is a weekend guest in the home of her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Gip Martin of Washington. She will be a Senior Home Ec major at Ouachita next year. On May 25 she will go to Camp Crestbridge for girls in North Carolina, to serve as head dietitian until Aug. 22. The camp is sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention.

played baseball in the Babe Ruth league and had music lessons. The 16-year-old is jealous, makes poor grades, stays on the phone too long, picks at his little sister and does anything to get yelled at. Today he was expelled from school for three days because he ditched one class to study for another. He gets sent home for not wearing a belt. All these things take 3 per cent off his grades. He's moody and mean until I whip him (with a belt). He seems to enjoy being punished. We've tried ignoring him, taking his phone away and keeping him in evenings, but it always ends up he has to be whipped. What would you suggest I do?—Anxious Mother

Dear Anxious Mother: Wild animals are tamed with the whip, thoroughbreds disciplined by kindness, reasoning and firmness. Your 16 year old needs patience and understanding from you—not a belting. But you'll never be able to give him the understanding, or go to Camp Crestbridge for girls in North Carolina, to serve as head dietitian until Aug. 22. The camp is sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention.

Find out what the subject was for which he ditched his regular class. Maybe it should be his mother. As his mother, his problems should be yours. Adolescence is a stormy time. The going—at best—is turbulent for both boys and girls. "See and the Adolescent." It will help you to a better understanding of their problems.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Please settle a dispute for us. When a lady meets a gentleman, does she speak first? If you meet a lady at the neighborhood store and have known her 30 years, should she speak to you first? This lady and I kept company for a little while. On her way out of the store she made a remark, "Aren't you speaking to me any more?"

I said, "I smiled at you and you turned away." I am free, single and disengaged. Was she in the wrong or I? Thank you. God Bless You.—A. C.

Dear A. C.: The lady speaks first. If the one in question saw you smile and looked the other way, she was in the wrong. Give her the benefit of the doubt. Maybe she was just being coy.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Please send me your leaflet, "So You Want to Write." I am a grandmother who has one son left whom I am helping through college by working part time. I have a wealth of anecdotes and stories told me by my parents and grandparents, who were Italian immigrants. I would like to write the story of my father.—Mrs. CL

Dear Mrs. C L: I am sending you my leaflet, "So You Want to Write." Good luck. The only way to write is write—but sending good books helps. Why don't you join the nearest "Greatest Books Discussion Group"?

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Win Behind 'Hot' Hitters

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The two hottest hitters in the National League are Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente and Milwaukee's Joe Adcock. Result: The league-leading Pirates and the third-place Braves are sizzling.

Clemente, who apparently regards the day lost when he doesn't get at least two hits, and scored at least one run, rapped three safeties and scored twice Sunday as the Pirates downed San Francisco, 11-7 in 11 innings.

The Puerto Rican flash scored the winning run on pinch-hitter Hal Smith's two-out bases-loaded single off Mike McCormick after starting the rally with a double.

The victory not only gave the Pirates the rubber of the three-game series but widened their lead over the second place Giants (6-4) to 10-4 and a half. It was Pittsburgh's 10th triumph in the last 12 games.

Adcock, apparently fully recovered from the back injury that sidelined him from April 28 to May 14, cracked a two-run homer, his second in two days, to lead the Braves to a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs. It was Milwaukee's third straight.

Los Angeles, paced by the hitting of Frank Howard and Norm Larker, outscored Philadelphia 9-6. St. Louis and Cincinnati split a doubleheader, the Cardinals coming from behind to win the first game 5-4 and the Reds taking the second 5-3.

In the American League, Washington won two from league-leading Chicago 7-1 and 3-2. Detroit took two from Boston 6-2 and 6-2. New York outlasted Kansas City 9-7 and Baltimore nipped Cleveland 7-6 in five innings of an abbreviated first game of a scheduled doubleheader. Rain ended proceedings.

Managerial strategy backfired and beat the Giants. With the score tied 7-7 and one out in the last of the 11th, Clemente doubled and moved to third on an infield out. San Francisco Manager Bill Rigney ordered McCormick to give intentional passes to right-handed hitters Gino Cimoli and Bill Mazeroski to lead the bases.

Rigney had a double purpose. First, he figured there would be a play at any base. Second, he guessed that Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh would pinch hit for pitcher Elroy Face. That's what he wanted because Face, fourth Pirate pitcher, had retired nine Giants in succession.

Alworth Wins a Third Letter

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Lance Alworth, a halfback, sprinter and centerfielder, is University of Arkansas' first three-sport letterman in 12 years.

Alworth was one of 50 varsity men and freshmen athletes approved for spring sports letters Saturday. He will get baseball and track letters to go with the football letter he earned last fall.

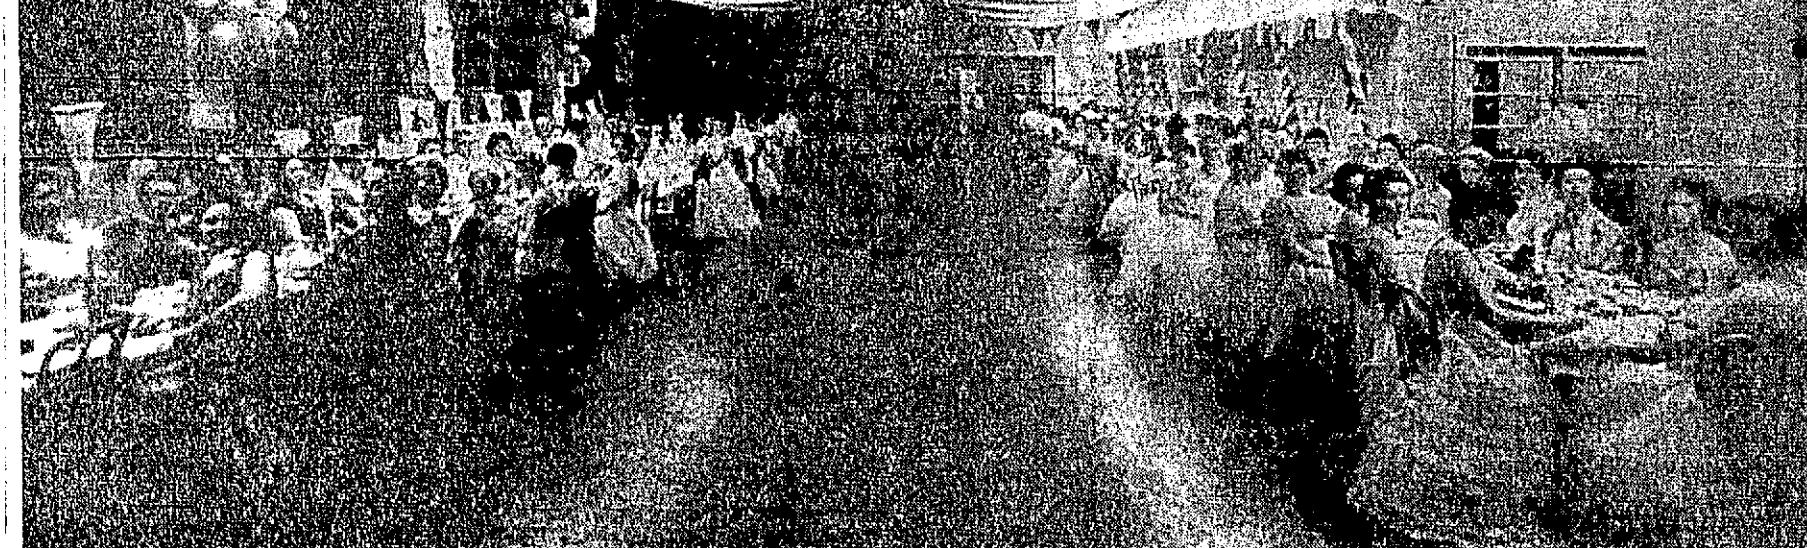

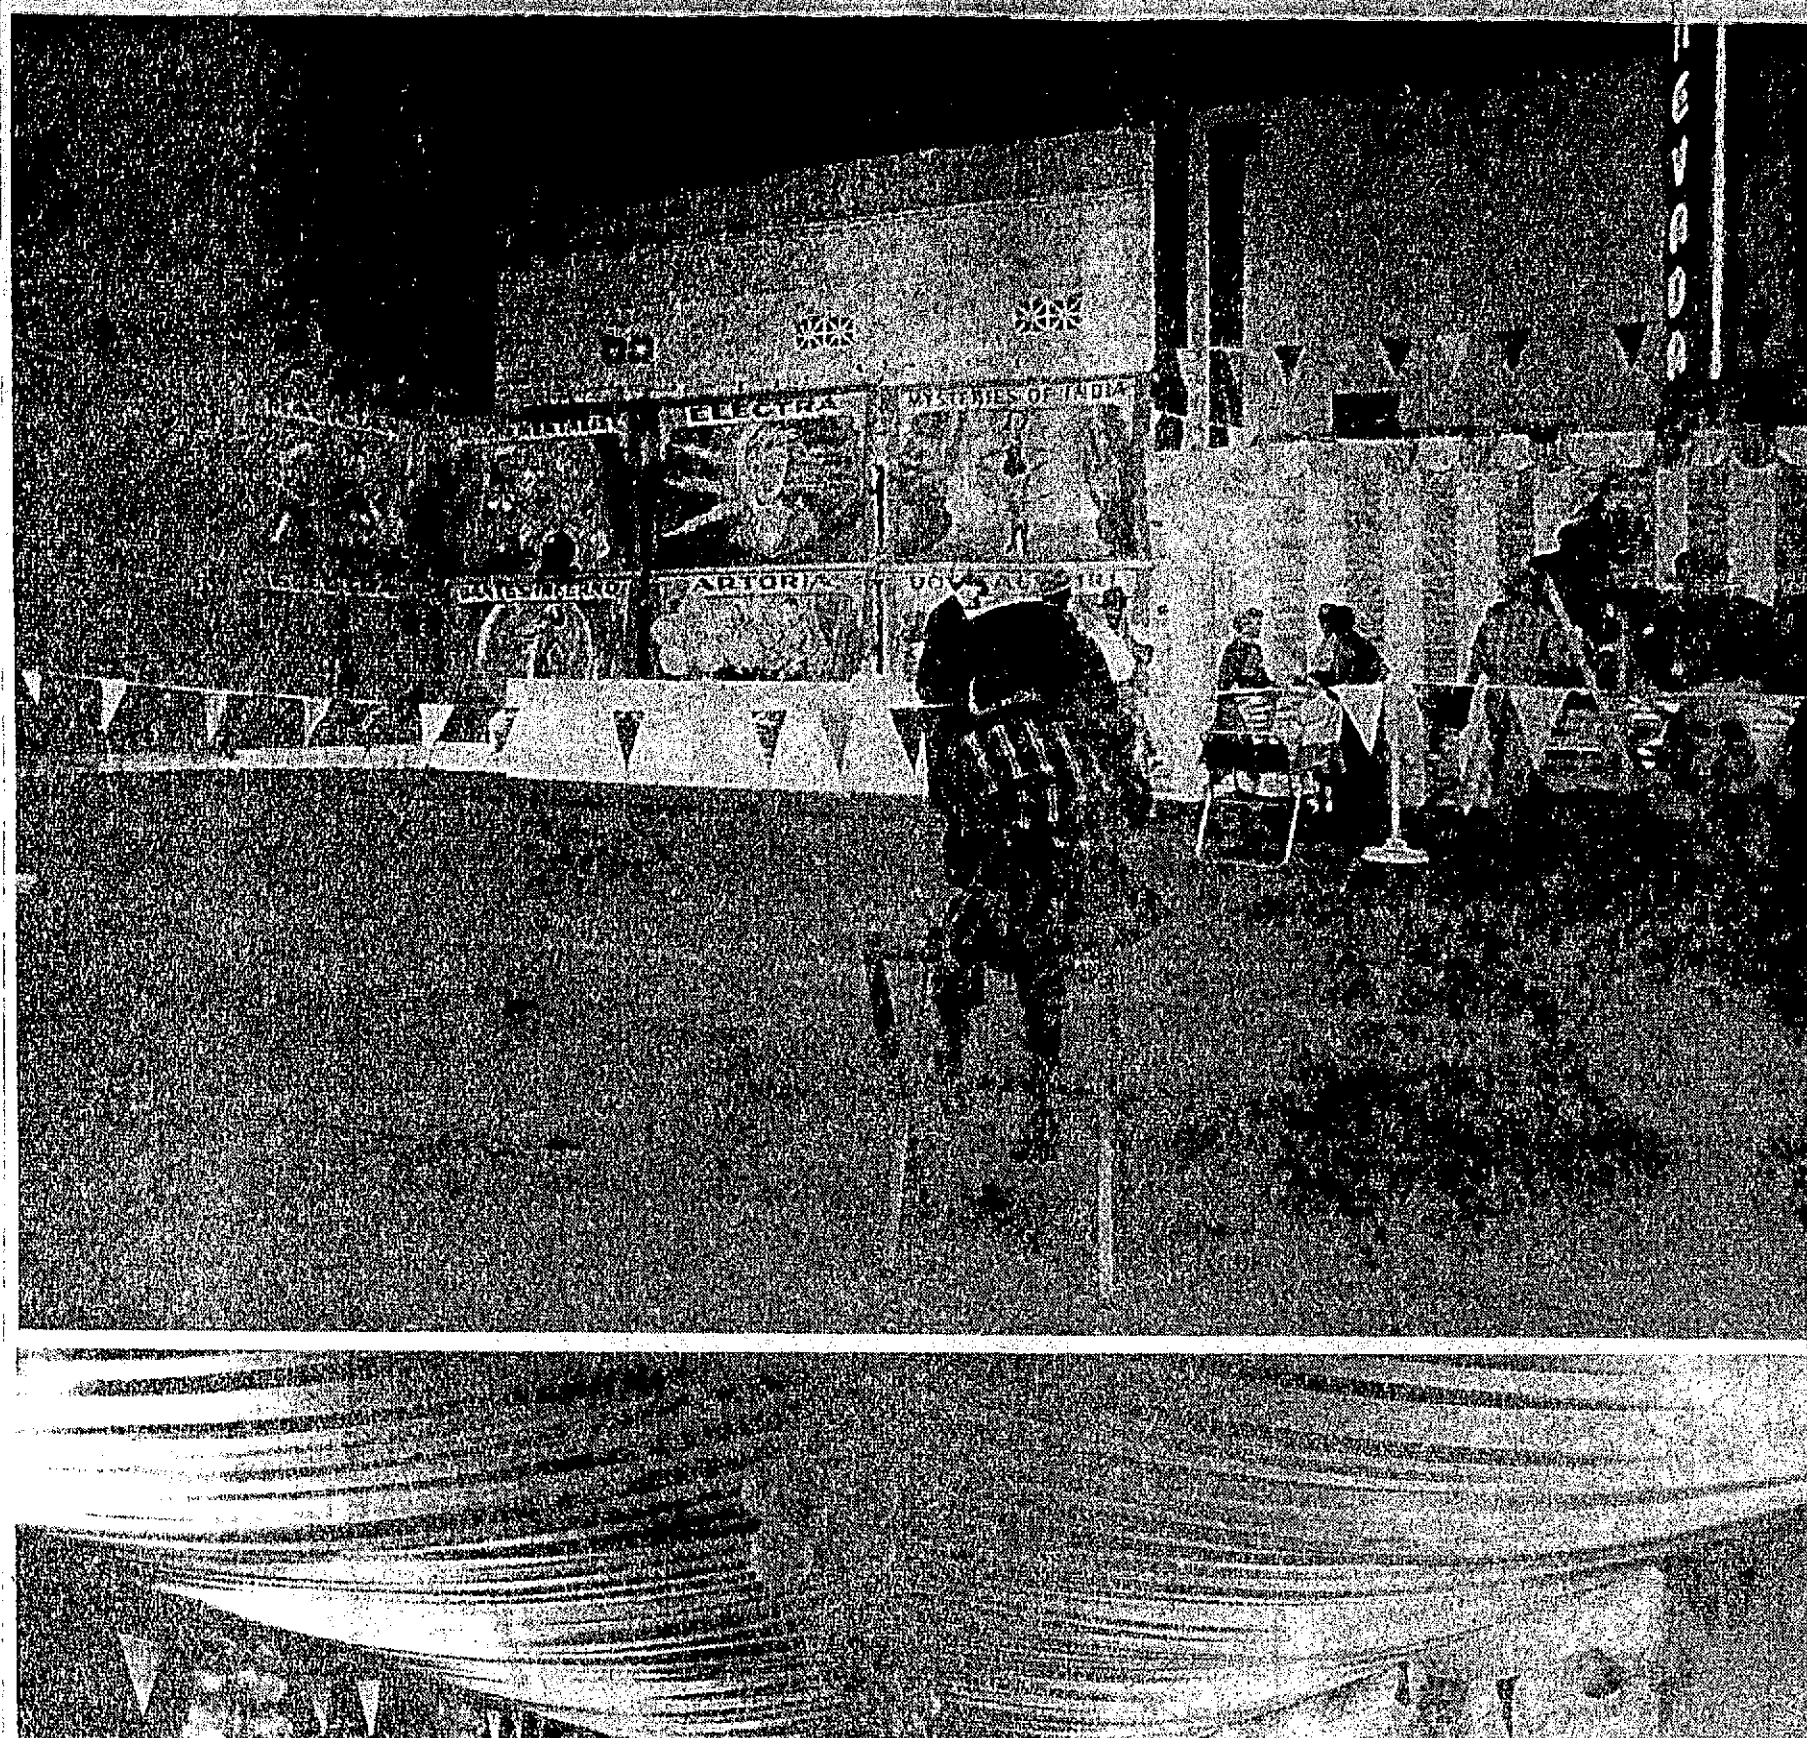

Not since Mel McGaha lettered in baseball, basketball and football in 1918 has a Razorback athlete won letters in three sports.

The state insurance department had one of the lowest operating costs, compared to its income, of the 50 state insurance departments.

Senators Slap Down Indians in Twin Bill

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Anyone who thinks baseball is an easy game, to figure should consult Manager Al Lopez of the American League leading Chicago White Sox.

Lopez started Sunday in a happy frame of mind. His team had just whipped the tough New York club two straight. It hadn't lost in 10 games at home this season.

The doubleheader opposition was last-place Washington. Here was a chance to fatten up the game and a half first place lead.

Luck appeared to favor Lopez and his White Sox right at the start. Pedro Ramos, scheduled to pitch the opener for Washington, was hit on the head by a fungo bat in a pre-game drill and was taken to a hospital.

Washington Manager Cookie Lavagetto was forced to press his ace, Camilo Pascual, into service with only three days rest.

The stage was set for a White Sox sweep. Instead, it was the Senators who scored the sweep, 7-5 and 3-2. Pascual not only won the opener, inflicting the first home defeat upon Chicago, but Ramos returned from the hospital to whip the Sox in the second game with a nine-hitter. Ironically, it was Ramos' first victory of the season.

The double defeat, together with Baltimore's 7-6 triumph over Cleveland, shaved the White Sox' first place lead to a half game over the Orioles. The Indians fell to third place but were only one game off the pace.

The Yankees' outlasted Kansas City 9-7 and Detroit scored its first doubleheader sweep of the year, 6-2 and 5-2 over the Boston Red Sox.

In the National League, Pittsburgh increased its first place lead over San Francisco to a tame and a half with an 8-7 triumph over the Giants in 11 innings. Milwaukee downed Chicago 3-1 for its third in a row. Los Angeles walloped Philadelphia 9-6 and St. Louis split with Cincinnati. The Cards won the opener 6-4 and the Reds the second game 5-3.

In the opener, Pascual ran his string of scoreless innings to 31 before yielding a two-run double to Ted Kluszewski in the 30th. He struck out seven to run his league-leading total to 68 and turned in his fifth victory and fourth straight.

Kluszewski rapped three hits in each game to give him the league lead in batting with .422.
